New York, September 27.—After yielding the run, the increment of a homer, three singles, a hit batter and two passes in the first inning, Kirby, a recruit, settled down to big league pitching, and his Giants back-rowers scored a victory over Boston to-day, 7 to 6, making the Giants one hundredth triumph of the season. Two runs in the sixth tied the count, and the winner came in the ninth on singles by Shafer and Becker and Gowdy's miff. Score:

McGraw Grooming His Men for Test of Strength Against Red Sox.
New York, September 27.—Manager McGraw, of the New York Giants, to-day began grooming his men for the test of strength with the Boston Americans. With the pennant race won, the recruits will be given the work of the work, for veteran players rest, while the new recruits are put in the line, playing just enough to keep in good condition. It is said that McGraw discusses the initial work of his young players, but he said to-day his young players, the South-eastern League star, in the box against Boston yesterday was the finest work he had seen done by a newcomer in the history of baseball. It was Demaree's first appearance for the Giants, and although the game was crucial to the extent that the manager meant clinching the pennant, the youngster had almost perfect control. He struck out nine men, allowed seven hits, two of which were scratches, gave only one base on balls and scored a shut-out. McGraw would figure in the world series, however, is useless as he only reported to the Giants on September 4, a week too late to be eligible. McGraw is being groomed particularly for "spitball" pitching against the Red Sox, and Mathewson and Marquard probably will have to manufacture a start one of the big games.

REDS DEFEAT CUBS

Chicago, Ill., September 27.—Cincinnati Reds to-day defeated Chicago 10 to 3 in the first game of the double-header, and played a 4 to 4 tie in the second, darkness putting an end to the contest after ten innings had been played. The visitors bunched hits in the first inning behind Backard, a recruit pitcher. Score:

Bowling

Bowling in general and especially those who take part in the coming league games will be pleased to know that the Newport alleys have all been planned and put in condition as good if not better than new, and everything is in readiness for the opening of the season. In addition to the alleys being in perfect condition, the management has installed the Backus automatic pin setters to be used in all league games. This is something new to the bowlers of Richmond and is sure to meet with their hearty approval. These machines are not only a great time saving device, but they assure an absolute accurate frame every time. Every pin will be in the "spot." No more will be the cry from the bowlers, "Aw put the pins in the spot." No more delay for pins to be "resotted." No more accusations that pins were hunched for a certain team or player. And last, but not least, the bowler will have to manufacture a new "excuse" for failure to make a strike.

The old time-worn saying: "If that pin had been in the spot, I would have had a strike" will have to be relegated to the past, for your failure to roll 200 will not rest with the pin boy. If (b) the unreliable and perhaps imperfect set up, which has been meted out to the bowlers in the past, has really been the cause of their not making a strike every time, then it will be known that the new system of manufacture is not rolled this season under the new system.

Thirteen Alleged Crap-Shooters

When the home of A. Freeman, colored, was raided last night by Patrolmen Matt Lear and Hertsch, thirteen negroes, alleged crap-shooters, were captured. They were taken to the First Police Station and charged with being disorderly and gambling. Freeman was charged with maintaining an objectionable resort.

CAPTAIN OF GIANTS SURE TO PROVE STAR DURING SERIES

Big Bat of Larry Doyle Is One of the Great Fears of the Boston Pitchers.

Captain of Giants Is Sure Some Hitter and Is Very Strong in the Pinches.

"Larry" Doyle, captain and second baseman of the New York Giants, is the player who will lug the bludgeon into the coming World's Series that, next to the big bat of "Chief" Meyers, is most feared by Boston pitchers. In the words of a well-known advertisement, "there's a reason." "Larry," at the hour in which we gallop to press, is belting the ball at a .321 clip, and his clouts have been of such a lusty order that he is close behind Zimmerman and Sweeney for the lead in extra bases with a record of 244 total bases. Which, if you happen to be a pitcher whom the exigencies of the occasion compel to shove one up within reach of this murderous bludgeon, is some occasion for quills of fear.

Taken by and large, a guy who is mauling the missile for .331 in doubles, triples and home runs is a person to approach with much wariness when he is up with his chin jammed down on his wishbone and his war club stirring up the agitated atmosphere in search of a fresh pile of gore for lunch.

"Larry," too, is a guy who doesn't shy at immense gatherings or crucial epochs. As a matter of fact, he is the crucial epoch kid. So there is no immediate prospect of Larry's nervous system jumping the governor belt and his efficiency being crabbled through a too earnest appreciation of the importance of the occasion when he faces a crisis in the coming series.

As an example of this, in the last World's Series against the Athletics, opposed to the superb pitching of Bender, Combs and Plank, which probably surpassed any pitching ever before staged in a World's Series, Doyle led his team at bat with an average of .384, and Meyers being the only two Giants who clubbed the 300 mark in the series, and among the hits Larry whaled off the classy pitching he was up against was a triple and three doubles, lumping two of his doubles and two singles in the fifth game of the series. Larry also shared with Herzog the honor of leading his team in stolen bases for the series.

Doyle hits from the left side of the plate and is a clean-up hitter, meeting the ball hard and square on the batter's shins, as he is a superb fielder of his position and an excellent field general, and always slopping over with fight and the "old pep." Taking into consideration his all-around ability, at bat, in the field and on the bases, together with his likelihood of any time to produce a long waiter that will break up a game, Doyle now looms up as one of the most promising possibilities for that vacant pedestal in the corner of the Hall of Fame allotted to World's Series heroes.

Doyle was born at Caserville, Ill., twenty-seven years ago last July, and before he quit the job to become one of the best second basemen in the country was a coal miner by trade. He embarked on his baseball career

HAMPDEN-SIDNEY TACKLES V. M. I.

Though Handicapped by Lack of Practice, Presbyterians Will Fight Gamely.

Hampden-Sidney, September 27.—Hampden-Sidney leaves to-day for Lexington where she will play the second game of her series which is with the strong V. M. I. team.

Coach Bernier has been handicapped greatly by the frequent rains. Last week he was able to hold only one scrimmage. The other evenings were taken up with signal practice indoors. The following men will take the trip to Lexington: Benedict, (Captain), tackle, Bolling, center, Forbes, guard, Moore, guard, Guthrie, tackle, Ebel, Jones, end, Saunders, quarterback, Driver, right half, McCormick, fullback, Gregory, left half, McHenry, guard, Carrington, A. B. quarterback, Proffitt, tackle, Corke, fullback.

College football on last year's team returned only a few days ago. He is quickly getting into condition.

The line is practically the same as last year except for the fact that Ebel is at end and Forbes at guard. Both are good men and will do much to strengthen the line.

The backfield, with the exception of Saunders and Driver, is entirely new. Driver, a brother of Jim Driver the Virginia star, is playing star ball in his position. Gregory is also showing up in great form, and likewise Carrington and McCormick. Saunders has been playing his usual star game at quarter.

Hampden-Sidney, although handicapped for want of practice, will meet V. M. I. to-morrow and will put up the same game fight that she did against the strong Medical College of Virginia team which outweighed her by at least twenty pounds to the man.

CALL OFF FIRST GAME OF SEASON

The first scheduled football game of the season between Fredericksburg and Richmond College, which was to have been played here to-day, has been postponed because of the unpreparedness of the two eleven.

Pool Expert Here.

J. L. Malone, pool and billiard expert, entertained a large audience at the Newport billiard room last night, showing wonderful skill with the cue and executing a number of fancy and trick shots. The cue handler came heralded as a wonder, having received words of praise from every quarter of the globe. He lived up to his reputation. On Monday night he will take on the best players of Richmond giving them a handicap.

NINETEEN INNINGS OF GREAT BASEBALL

Nationals and Athletics Hang Out Season's Record, Former Finally Winning—Eddie Plank Pitches Best but Errors Help Hostile Horde.

Philadelphia, September 27.—Philadelphia Athletics today broke the batting record for the season by playing nineteen innings here, the former winning 4 to 2. Two games were to have been played, but darkness prevented the second contest.

The visitors scored four runs in the first two innings on five hits, two walks and fielding errors and a fielder's choice. After that Plank held them to no runs and six hits for sixteen successive innings. In the nineteenth Williams received a base on balls and Johnson beat out a bunt, Williams was forced at third on a sacrifice, and Foster forced Mueller at second, Harry to Collins in trying for a double play Collins threw wild, and Johnson scored the winning run.

Plank pitched the first nine innings for Washington. Twice with the bases filled, scoring was prevented by double plays. And in the seventh with the bases filled and one out, the home team scored on an out. Four hits and an error in the ninth enabled Philadelphia to win. Johnson, who took Green's place in the tenth inning, was hit harder than Plank, but brilliant fielding, especially by Foster and McBride, prevented scoring.

Plank, a veteran of twelve seasons, out-twirled both of his younger opponents, the majority of Washington's runs being due to battery and fielding misplays. Score:

ORANGE AND BLUE BEGINS SEASON

Strenuous Scrimmage Before First Game—Regulars Score Four Touchdowns on Scrubs.

Charlottesville, Va., September 27.—In preparation for tomorrow's game with William and Mary College, the opening of the local football season, Head Coach Elliott stacked up his varsity team against Dr. Johnnie Neff's scrub eleven to-day in a contest which lasted twenty minutes. Four touchdowns were made by the regulars, after a very ragged exhibition, due in part to the soggy field. There was scoring in the first quarter, but in the second Captain Todd caught a punt and ran thirty yards across the scrub goal line. Maxson made the next touchdown on an end run. Todd repeated at the start of the final quarter, and Sims added another six points just as the game ended. But for a fumble this last touchdown would have been possible, as the scrubs had stopped the regulars three times within the five-yard line. Brown, former center at the Episcopal High School, starred for the scrubs.

The strenuous scrimmages of the past week and the wet weather have combined to produce quite a bunch of cripples. A half-dozen men are troubled with severe cases of Charleyhorse. Acree is about the worst off.

Coach Elliott has announced the following as the probable line-up for to-morrow: McDonald and Finlay, ends; Woolfolk and Redus, tackles; Carter and Jett or Walker, guards; Wood, center; Todd, quarter back; Acree, right half; Maxson or Ray, left half; Cook or Blanchard, full back. Officials for the contest are Harry Varner, referee; Dr. Hume, umpire.

SOX TAKE BOTH

St. Louis, September 27.—The White Sox took both games of the double-header to-day, 9 to 8 and 8 to 12, Washington. The Sox took the lead with four safeties in the first inning and were never headed. In the second game, allowing six walks against thirteen of the local twirlers. Darkness ended the play after seven innings. Score:
